

IMMIGRANTS ARE ESSENTIAL

To Help Solve the National Health Care Worker Shortage

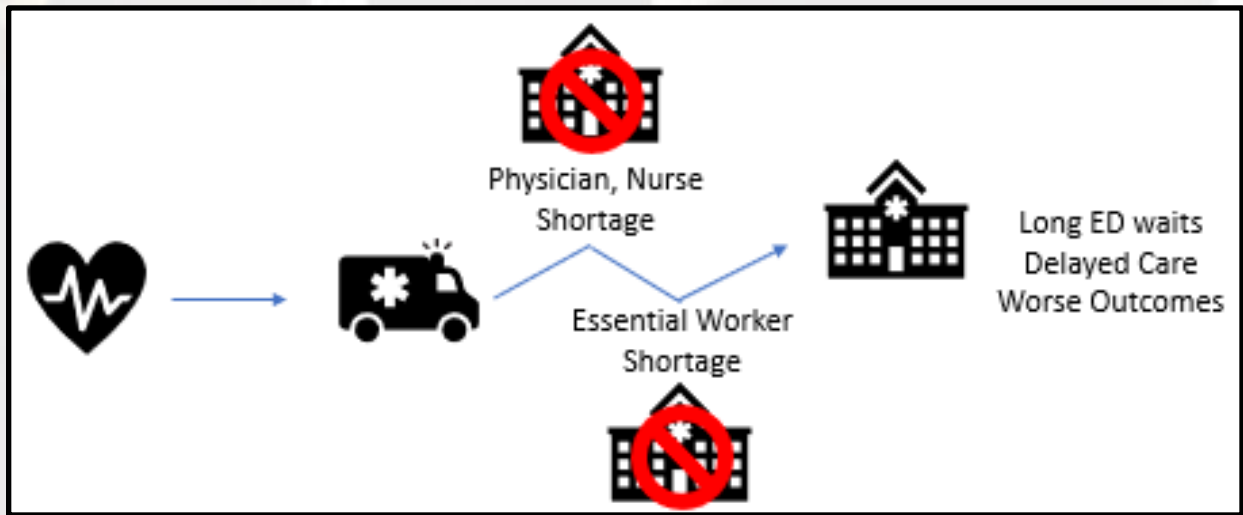

1 IN 4 physicians are immigrants

1 IN 5 hospital support staff are immigrants

1 IN 6 nurses are immigrants

500,000 expected nursing shortage by 2030

124,000 expected physician shortage by 2034

The COVID-19 pandemic has magnified pre-existing health care worker shortages, delaying care and putting lives at risk. America needs more health care workers and support staff, and immigrants are lining up to meet this need.
