

AASLD Conference Agenda

Friday, October 20, 2017

PLENARY SESSION

8:00 am to 8:15 am

Andrew Muir, MD: “A risk prediction score based on magnetic resonance cholangiopancreatography (MRCP) accurately predicts disease progression in patients with primary sclerosing cholangitis (PSC)”

Location: Ballroom

9:00 am to 12:00 pm

CLINICAL RESEARCH WORKSHOP

9:00am to 9:20am

Manal Abdelmalek, MD, Anna Mae Diehl, MD: “How clinical investigators collaborate with basic investigators”

Location: 151

2:23pm to 2:43pm

Manal Abdelmalek, MD, Anna Mae Diehl, MD: Non-invasive Diagnosis of NASH: We’re Getting There “Mouse to Man: What we have learned about potential biomarkers”

Location: Room :207

8:00 am to 5:30 pm

POSTER SESSION

Kuo Du, Ph.D: “ Hedgehog-Yap Signaling Pathway Regulates Glutaminolysis To Control Hepatic Stellate Cell Fate”

Mark Jewel, Ph.D: “ Fn14 and Wnt signaling pathway crosstalk control liver progenitor expansion in 3D organoid culture”

Andrew Muir, MD: “Radiologic progression primary sclerosing cholangitis (PSC) by two dimensional magnetic resonance cholangiopancreatography (MRCP): Prospective data from a randomized control trial”

Location: Hall D

5:15 pm to 7:00 pm

DEBATE SESSION

6:10pm:

Kara Wegerman, MD (GI Fellow) Yuval Patel, MD (GI Fellow)

Mentor: Dr. Carl Berg

Debate against Cleveland Clinic

AASLD Conference Agenda

Saturday, October 21st, 2017

6:45am to 7:00am

EARLY MORNING WORKSHOP

Anna Mae Diehl, MD: “Basic mechanisms of NASH progression”

Ticketed Event

8:00 am to 5:30 pm

POSTER SESSION

2:00pm to 2:30pm

Cynthia Moylan, MD: “Visceral and subcutaneous adipose tissue measurements associated with increased metabolic risk for NAFLD in pre-pubertal obese children”

2:00pm to 2:30pm

Ayako Suzuki, MD, Ph.D.: “Higher rates and significant disparities in the risk and phenotype of amoxicillin: clavulanate-related liver injury observed in the Veterans Health Administration (VHA)”

Location: Hall D

12:30pm:

MEET THE PROFESSOR LUNCHEON (CLINICAL)

Susanna Naggie, MD: “Hepatitis C: Special Populations and Continued Challenges”

Sunday, October 22nd, 2017

3:00pm to 4:30pm

PLENARY SESSION

3:45pm to 4:00pm

Kara Wegerman, MD (GI Fellow): “Gender and menopause significantly modify effects of metabolism-related SNPs on fibrosis stage in adult patients with nonalcoholic fatty liver disease (NAFLD)”

Mentor: Ayako Suzuki, MD, Ph.D.

Location: Room 202

5:00 pm to 7:00 pm

QUALITY IMPROVEMENT IN TRANSPLANT HEPATOLOGY FELLOWSHIP

6:00pm to 6:30pm

Ziad Gellad, MD: “Quality Improvement in Transplant Hepatology Fellowship”

Location: 145

AASLD Conference Agenda

8:00 am to 5:30 pm

POSTER SESSION

Seh Hoon Oh, Ph.D: "Yap activation induces TGF- β signaling and epithelial-to-mesenchymal transition (EMT) in regenerating hepatocytes after partial hepatectomy"

6:55pm:

Yuval A Patel, MD (GI Fellow) Marsha Turner, Dawn Provenzale, MD, Steve S. Choi, MD, Cynthia Moylan, MD, and Christine M. Hunt:
"Diet/exercise programs are used by one in five severely obese patients with biopsy-defined Nonalcoholic Fatty Liver Disease (NAFLD) advanced fibrosis in the Veterans Health Administration(VHA)"
Location: Hall D

Monday, October 23rd, 2017

PLENARY SESSION

6:45 am to 7:45 am

Elizabeth Goacher, PA: "Prevention of Hospital Readmissions"
Location: Room EMW 46

3:00 pm to 4:00 pm

Susanna Naggie, MD: "100% SVR with 8 weeks of ledipasvir/sofosbuvir in HIV infected Men with Acute HCV Infection: Results from the SWIFT-C Trial"
Location: Room 146

4:00 pm to 6:15 pm

Susanna Naggie, MD: "How We Make Our Recommendations? What Important Gaps Remain in the Care of HCV Patients"
Location: Ballroom
