A RECENT SUCCESS

The Department of Medicine Faculty Development Academy is accepting applications for 2018-2020 cohort. Any regular-rank DOM faculty member can apply to become a member of the Academy, but the program is specifically designed to serve those at the Instructor and Assistant Professor levels.

Deadline for applying is August 15.

Submit application here.

---

Clinical and Health Services Research Branch

Members of the Clinical/Health Services Research Branch of the DoM Faculty Development Academy will work with Academy Coaches to develop and implement an individualized faculty development plan and a core curriculum that will help achieve career goals in clinical/health services research.

Basic/Translation Research Branch

Members of the Basic/Translational Research Branch of the DoM Faculty Development Academy will work with Academy Coaches to develop and implement an individualized faculty development plan and a core curriculum that will help achieve career goals in basic/translational research.

Administrator Path Branch

Exciting new changes to the Administrative Pathway for Fall 2018

A DoM-tailored leadership curriculum, led by Cary Ward, MD, associate professor of medicine (cardiology): NEW this cohort! See here for a list of planned topics. We will also facilitate mentoring sessions with current leaders at Duke.

Education Scholars Branch

We have resumed the Education Lab meetings to discuss works in progress and to teach each other about education research methodology. The first Education Lab Meeting of the year was a great success with discussion by Drs. McNeill and Zaas on promotion for educators. Please make sure to refer to the links on the Duke AHEAD website for examples of Educators’ Portfolios at https://dukeahead.duke.edu/how-we-can-help/eportfolio-educators.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Senior mentor leading session</th>
<th>Location</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>June 27, 5-6pm</td>
<td>Lisa or Mitch</td>
<td>Medical Center Library - Room 212C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>August, 10, 7-8am</td>
<td>Mitch</td>
<td>Medical Center Library - Room 212C</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Additionally, all current and previous Education Branch members should have received a link to a SignUp Genius site to sign up to share your work in progress at a future lab meeting. These lab meetings have a number of purposes, including an opportunity to share and receive feedback about your education research and curriculum development projects, gain collaborators, and share tips for succeeding as an educator in the Department of Medicine. Please be sure to sign up – current education scholars should present during at least one upcoming meeting.

LET IT FLOW (recent publications, new grants, any type of accomplishment)

Did you know…current members’ 2–year term in the DoM Faculty Development Academy is coming to the end of term?

Help spread the word that we are recruiting new members for the DoM Faculty Development Academy and the application process will open in June!

UPCOMING EVENTS

It’s time again to schedule your July Quarterly meeting with your coach!

We are now calling for applications for the next cohort of Academy members. The deadline for applying is August 15, 2018 at 5 p.m.

Submit application here.

The Department of Medicine Book Club will host a discussion of What Patients Say, What Doctors Hear, by Danielle Ofri, MD, on Tuesday, June 19, 2018. All faculty and trainees in the Department are invited to participate, and the event will be open to other providers and students across the Duke University Medical Center.

HAVE MORE TO SAY?

Save the Date

If you plan to apply to join the Academy, please save the date September 26, 2018, 3-6pm, for the first session of the leadership curriculum and a Faculty Development Academy Kickoff Celebration!